

The Brain-Gut Connection: Evidence-Based Psychological Strategies for Treatment of Gastrointestinal Symptoms in Children, Adolescents, and Young Adults

2018 Registration Form

* Online registration is available at <https://bostonchildrens.cloud-cme.com/Aph.aspx?P=15&EID=733>

Please complete and mail this form with a check made payable to: Boston Children's Hospital

Attn: Victoria Cunningham
Department of Medical Education, BCH3431
300 Longwood Avenue
Boston, MA 02115

Please note: to guarantee registration, all fields on this form must be completed and received by the CME department by May 4, 2018.

First Name _____ Last Name _____

Middle Initial _____ Degree _____

Email Address _____

*Please use an email address you check often.

Mailing Address _____
Street City/State Zip _____

Organization _____ Job Title _____

Phone _____

We will only contact you regarding your registration.

Registration Type (please select one):

☐ $100 Participation + 4 CE Credits*

☐ Group Rate $75

☐ $50 Participation only (no CEs)

☐ Student Rate $25

* This program has been approved to offer 4 credits for Psychologists, and application for MaMHCA and social worker credits has been submitted. Please contact Amy Hale, PhD. at amy.hale@childrens.harvard.edu for the status of these CE credit approvals.

Group rate available for 3+ clinicians registering from same organization/practice. Registrations must be submitted together.

If you have questions or issues with registration, please contact the continuing education office via email: cmefdepartment@childrens.harvard.edu